

Chain of Command

The two purposes of the chain of command are:

- 1) Decentralize Authority
- 2) Link the different levels of command

Commander-In-Chief	President of the United States, The Honorable Mr. Trump
Secretary of Defense	The Honorable Mr. Mattis
Secretary of the Navy	The Honorable Mr. Spencer
Commandant of the Marine Corps	General Neller
Sergeant Major of the Marine Corps	Sergeant Major Green
Director, MCJROTC	Mr. Robert Oltman
Regional Director, Region 4, MCJROTC	Lieutenant Colonel Carruth
Superintendent of Schools, Adams 14 School District	Dr. Javier Abrego
Principal, Adams City High School	Mrs. Gabriella Maldonado
Senior Marine Instructor	Lieutenant Colonel Heery
Cadet Battalion Commander	Cadet Major Jennifer Carrillo
Cadet Company Commander – “A” Company	Cadet First Lieutenant Antonio Ortega
Cadet Company Commander – “B” Company	Cadet First Lieutenant Vasquez

Marine Corps Facts

Birth Date of the Marine Corps	10 November 1775
Birth Place of the Marine Corps	Tun Tavern, Philadelphia
Marine Corps Colors	Scarlet and Gold
Name of the Marine Corps Band	“The President’s Own”
Translation of Semper Fidelis	Always Faithful
Marine Officer Sword	Mameluke Sword
Marine Corps Mascot	English Bulldog – “Chesty”
Marine Corps Emblem	Eagle: Nation Symbol Globe: Worldwide Service Anchor: Naval Tradition